- Be quiet, silence your phone.

RUN HIDE TELL

RUN to a place of safety. This is a far better option than to surrender or negotiate. If there's nowhere to go, then...

HIDE It's better to hide than to confront. Remember to turn your phone to silent and turn off vibrate. Barricade yourself in if you can. Then finally and only when it is safe to do so...

TELL the police by calling 999.

Evacuation and Lockdown Procedures

When considering evacuation and the security of ballot boxes it must be noted that the safety of all present is of paramount importance.

- Designate specified personnel who will, in the event of an evacuation, be tasked with removing ballot boxes and ballot papers, marked electoral register for the polling station and the corresponding numbers list etc. Remember personal safety comes first.
- Prepare a contingency plan for arrangements for receiving and protecting ballot boxes in case of evacuation.
- Prepare a contingency plan to identify alternate means of access and egress to the counting stations in cases of emergency.
- Identify a designated evacuation rendezvous point. Has a secondary venue for a polling station been identified should an evacuation of the primary location be required?

If you are required to evacuate or lockdown the venue - use your judgement

- Stay calm.
- Assess the situation, the type of incident, its location, attackers and hazards.
- Is the incident or device inside the venue or outside the venue?
- Establish the location of the safest place.
- If you evacuate take the safest route, do so in an orderly manner, insisting others go with you, but don't let their indecision slow you down.
- If you lockdown, go to a safer area, secure all entrances and exits to the premises where possible.
- Communicate to all present what is happening and advise as to the most appropriate action.
- Stay out of sight and away from windows.
- Place your phone on silent, lock yourself in a room if possible.

Follow the RUN HIDE TELL principles – Inform the police, call 999
